Notice Regarding Capital and Business Alliance with Fixpoint, Inc.

EXEO Group, Inc. (head office: Shibuya-ku, Tokyo; Tetsuya Funabashi, President) announces that it has signed a capital and business alliance agreement with Fixpoint, Inc. (head office: Shibuya-ku, Tokyo; Masaki Misumi, President), which handles automated system operation services.

1. Purpose of the capital and business alliance

The Group believes that solving social issues is a universal mission as it laid out in its 2030 Vision and Medium-Term Management Plan (FY2021-FY2025), which were both released in May 2021. With this in mind, the Group will strive to connect and combine a variety of engineering areas through innovation and work relentlessly to create value for sustainable growth. By doing so, it aims to be a corporate group that is socially essential globally and in Japan.

Assigning itself the mission of eliminating waste and changing the world, Fixpoint has provided automated operation solutions since its foundation. Its proprietary Kompira series has supported customers' automation as automated operation services under the concept of "change the mechanism of operations."

Through this capital and business alliance, the Group will continue delivering value to many customers in the form of new solutions by linking its own solutions for automated IT operations to Fixpoint's Kompira series.
